NY 1-1

On September 14 and September 25, 1951, NY 1-1 advised that he had received the following information concerning subject through NY 1-1:

ANDRIS A. SAKS, 103-33 115th Street, Richmond Hill, N.Y., was born in a province of Latvia close to geographic location and sympathies to the Soviet Union. He is approximately 45 years of age and he came to the United States in 1935 or 1936. His occupation is unknown. SAKS is considered somewhat of a national Latvian hero, inasmuch as he received one of the highest decorations possible when he fought with the Latvian Battalion on the Eastern Front during World War II.

The subject, before World War II, while Latvia was still free, was convicted in Latvia for Communist activity while a student in high school. He was released shortly after his arrest because it was felt his activities were motivated by his immaturity and the misinformation sometimes prevalent in students of his age.

During active military service in the Latvian Army, the subject was under constant observation by the Security Division of the Army and was politically doubtful. However, no positive information was ever received about his pro-Communist activities during this time. NY 1-2 personally knew of this constant observation of the subject in the Army.

Two of the subject's sisters were arrested in Latvia for Communist activities before World War II.

After the Soviet domination of Latvia, one of subject's brothers became a member of the Latvian puppet parliament in the early stages of Soviet occupation, right after the annexation of Latvia by the Soviet Union in 1940.

After World War II, in Latvia, the subject was one of the founders of a disabled Latvian war veterans organization entitled, "Latviesu Kara Invalidu Apvieniba". This organization was founded to split up the already existing Latvian war veteran organization entitled "Daugavas Vanagi", and to in this section. While a few organizations have indicated that the first mentioned organization had taken over its financial accounts in place of official collection to the benefit of organizations striving for a free Latvia. However, no names or confirming information was ever specifically obtained.

NY T-1 stated they have no specific information that the subject is an espionage agent. However, since he has been in this country he has been instrumental in trying to create discord at recent national meetings of the American Latvian Association and in trying to belittle anti-Soviet activity on the part of this organization. NY T-1 stated therefore, because of his activities and background, subject has been under suspicion by some Latvian leaders in this country as a tool of the Soviet Union.

The remaining entries are withdrawals, generally in low three-figure amounts. The balance in the account now is $5.20, which was reached on October 20, 1960.

The signature card dated October 6, 1960, for ROBERTS also reflects that he was a draftsman residing at 100-1 104th Street, Richmond Hill, Queens, New York. He was born December 11, 1929, in Latvia. He listed his father as JAMES, his mother as ZELDA, and his wife as ELGA.

He claimed to be a non-quota immigrant eligible as an escapee, and stated that in 1945, he had applied for an immigrant visa at the IRO Office, Neuburg/D., Germany, and in 1952, applied again at the United States (US) Consulate in Munich, Germany.

He was granted an immigrant visa number 59438 on November 10, 1955, as a stateless Latvian by G. MICHAEL BACHE at Munich. He held Reiseausweis number 0020306 dated November 10, 1953, at Augsburg, Germany, expiring November 10, 1955.

It was certified that subject had arrived at the

Port of New York: December 16, 1955, on the USS General
W. S. Knight.

By card dated February 8, 1956, ANTONI advised that he was living with his family at 124 10th Street, West Union, New York, and his last address was 505 Eastern Parkway, Brooklyn 25, New York. He was employed by the Auditis Construction Company, Incorporated, Hellgate, New York.

On June 15, 1956, ANGLAS stated that he was now residing at 104-41 104th Street, Corona Park, New York, and was employed by Eddie Medaglia, Construction Company, 135 Leavenworth Street, Rockville Centre, New York. His last address was 124 103rd Street, West Babylon, New York.

An affidavit dated April 29, 1955, by LILJA ABOLINS, 180 Washington Park, Brooklyn 5, New York, sponsored ROBERTS ANKAS and his wife, Mrs. NIIDA ANKAS, born January 6, 1922, Riga, Latvia, and their children, IRIS ANKAS, daughter, born August 7, 1951, Augsburg, Germany, and GREGG EDWIN ANKAS, son, born March 8, 1952, Augsburg. LILJA ABOLINS was born in Riga, Latvia, February 2, 1912, and her daughters, DELTRICE and DAIDA ABOLINS, were born March 25, 1938 and December 22, 1939, respectively. This affidavit was made before the Director of the Methodist Committee for Overseas Relief, 150 5th Avenue, New York, New York.

The indices of the New York Office contained no record concerning POLIS WELLINGTON, HENRIKHS BAGATAIS, MARIJA ANKANS, MILDA ANKANS, LILIJA, BEATRICE and BAIBA ABOLINS or ERIKS NIEDRITIS.

On October 30, 1961, NY T-4 advised that he first knew ROBERTS ANCAINS in Germany, possibly in the spring of 1947. ANCAINS lived in Augsburg, which was in the American sector. ANCAINS was on the Central Board of Daugavas Vanagi in Germany until about 1954, when the Congress elected a

100-3442

ANCANS was out. With his friends in Germany, in 1935, subject joined the National Fascist Party, of which he was elected chairman. This organization is still active, and it is located in New York.

ANCANS was serving in the Latvian Army when it took over Latvia in 1940. The Latvian Army was disbanded after the Red Army and ANCANS was accordingly disassociated with it. He left the Army as a corporal or sergeant. Subsequently, ANCANS became a lieutenant in the Latvian Legion and served as an officer in the Legion to the end of the war.

NICHOLAI MOCHNIS, now working for the newspaper, "Latvian" in Germany, served as an intelligence officer with the Latvian Legion. ANCANS was under observation by MOCHNIS, but MOCHNIS never obtained any derogatory information against ANCANS.

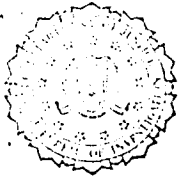

NY T-4 stated that there were two rumors against ANCANS in Germany. One was that one or two of his sisters was arrested as a Communist and sentenced to prison. The second rumor was that a brother of ANCANS was elected to parliament when it was first organized in cooperation with the communists, after the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR) took over Latvia. ANCANS came from a big family. NY T-4 stated he did not know if there was any substance to these stories at all. However, it was his opinion that ANCANS was "somewhat stupid", and was not intelligent enough to be active as a Soviet agent.

It was NY T-4's recollection that ANCANS had worked a very short time for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) in Germany before 1951 or 1952, and he believed this information came to him through VITIS JANUMS, who is still in Germany. true

On June 3, 1960, IC THOMAS G. CLEARY received a telephone call from an anonymous female complainant who stated that she was a German Jew, and that her husband, a household service man, had been doing some work in the home of ROBERT ANCANS at 103-33 115th Street, Richmond Hill, Queens, and he noticed that one of the subject's walls was almost entirely covered with a mural or photo of himself in a German storm trooper uniform.

In connection with the foregoing, NY T-1 advised that the uniform of the Latvian Legion was similar in all respects to the German Army uniform with the exception of the collar tabs which contained a different insignia.
